

Case 3: What should a group do after a public mistake?

The crew's recap caption blamed younger neighbors for a late start, but the event log shows the projector failed.

On your own Read What happened. Underline the caption and the time the projector failed. About 6 minutes.

Your role: You're the one who checks the log's times before the correction goes up. New skill: Correct a public mistake.

Gia and Jordy sit at a table with a laptop and a printed page.

What happened

It is Sunday at the edit desk. Caio, 24, edited a short recap of Friday's screening. The crew posted it on Saturday morning. Gia's caption, "Great night, once the younger crowd finally got organized," sounded believable, because a few people did arrive late.

Then Jordy checks the setup log. The projector failed at 5:40 p.m. The replacement was not running until 6:20, twenty minutes after everyone was seated. The log also says Anika and Dec helped carry chairs before the doors opened.

Anika sends the group a voice note asking why she and Dec are the problem in the post. Gia wants to take responsibility. Her first draft of a correction is mostly about how bad she feels, and the recap caption is still up.

Your question: What should the correction say, and what will the crew do differently next time?

Key terms

On your own Read each key term and its example. Then write your first guess in the box. About 5 minutes.

Claim A claim is a statement that something is true. You can check a claim with evidence.

En español: afirmación

In this case: The caption claims the late start happened because “the younger crowd” was not organized. Jordy’s setup log checks that claim.

Correction A correction is a public statement that replaces wrong information with accurate information.

En español: corrección

In this case: Gia edits the original caption, not just her story, so people who saw it learn what was wrong.

Accountability Accountability is owning a mistake and doing what you said you would do to fix it.

En español: rendición de cuentas

In this case: The crew names who fixes the caption, who contacts Anika and Dec, and who checks the next recap against the log.

Who is involved

Gia

Wrote the recap caption

“I wrote ‘once the younger crowd finally got organized.’ A few people did come in late, so it felt true. I never checked why we started late.”

Jordy

Kept the setup log on Friday

“My log says Anika and Dec were carrying chairs before doors opened. The caption turned them into the reason we started late.”

Before you look at the evidence, what should Gia's correction say first?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

The story: A recap goes up

Remember the screening you helped save in Case 1? It happened. On Saturday morning, the crew posted a short recap video that Caio edited. Gia wrote the caption: “Great night, once the younger crowd finally got organized.”

The caption sounded believable. A few people did arrive late. But on Sunday, Jordy opens the setup log from Friday night. It says the projector failed at 5:40 p.m. Everyone was seated at 6:00. The replacement projector was not connected until 6:20. The log also says Anika and Dec helped carry chairs before the doors opened.

Then Anika sends the crew a voice note. “We were helping you set up. Why are we the problem in this post?”

Gia wrote the caption, and she wants to fix it. Her first draft says, “Sorry if this came across wrong. We love our younger neighbors and would never want anyone to feel excluded.” It is kind. It also never mentions the projector.

❓ Stop and think. The caption felt true to Gia because a few people came in late. Why was that not enough evidence?

From sorry to a real fix

You met the word claim in Case 1. A claim is a statement that something is true. You can check a claim with evidence. The caption claimed the younger crowd caused the late start. Jordy’s log is the original source, and it shows a broken projector instead.

From sorry to a real fix, continued

A correction is a public statement that replaces wrong information with accurate information. It should appear where people saw the mistake. So the crew edits the recap caption itself. Caio says it simply: they fix the same post instead of burying it under a new one.

Accountability is owning a mistake and doing what you said you would do to fix it. That means naming who does each job. Gia corrects the caption. Caio keeps a visible correction note with the video. Jordy adds a source check before the crew posts again. Anika and Dec do not have to do any of the repair work.

How will the crew know the fix worked? Jordy has an idea. Ask a few people who saw the first post why the screening started late. If they still say “the younger crowd,” the correction did not land.

❓ Stop and think. What does a correction need that Gia’s first draft is missing?

What research says about apologies

Researchers have studied what makes an apology work. A 2016 study found that two parts matter most: taking responsibility and offering to repair the harm (The Ohio State University News, April 12, 2016). Gia’s first draft does neither.

Real newsrooms correct mistakes too. NPR’s public editor explains how the network names an error and fixes it on the story. NPR also keeps a public list of corrections (NPR, October 21, 2022). Your job in this case is to check the log’s times before the correction goes up.

❓ Stop and think. How could the crew check that readers now understand why the screening started late?

Key idea: corrections

On your own Read the key idea and the code of ethics. Then answer the question in the box. About 8 minutes.

Gia’s caption did two jobs at once. It explained the late start, and it blamed a group of people for it. A claim is a statement that something is true. You can check a claim with evidence. Jordy’s setup log checks the caption’s claim and shows a projector failure instead.

A correction is a public statement that replaces wrong information with accurate information. It should appear where people saw the mistake, so the crew should edit the recap caption itself. A 2016 study of apologies found that taking responsibility and offering to repair the harm mattered most. Gia’s first draft talks about loving younger neighbors, and it does neither.

Accountability is owning a mistake and doing what you said you would do to fix it. That means naming who corrects the caption, who contacts the people it blamed and who checks the next recap. Anika does not have to comfort Gia or approve the correction in public. The crew can offer her a private way to respond.

Question: The recap caption went up Saturday at 11:08 a.m. What should the crew change first, and where?

Your answer

First, the crew should change ___ in ____.

How a real newsroom corrects mistakes: name the error, fix it on the story and keep a public list.

A real brand apology after an ad played into a racial stereotype; compare the words with what changed afterward.

[illegible]

Sort the evidence

On your own Compare the four accounts. Mark where they agree, where they differ and which one was written at the time. About 8 minutes.

Place the four accounts side by side. Where do they agree, where do they split, and which one was written down at the time?

Account 1
Caption: the night went well once the younger crowd got organized.

Account 2
Event log: projector failed at 5:40; replacement connected at 6:20; Anika and Dec carried chairs.

Account 3
Anika: “We were helping you set up.”

Where they agree

Where they differ

Check: Which account was recorded at the time rather than remembered afterward?

Whose perspective is missing?

Whose view is missing from these documents? What would you ask them?

The view that is missing is _____. I would ask _____.

Practice: choose a response

On your own Choose what goes first in the correction and explain why. Then fix the two marked lines.
About 8 minutes.

What should go first in the correction?

☐ A An explanation of how bad Gia feels about the caption.

☐ B The wrong claim, and what the event log shows.

☐ C Delete the post and stay quiet.

Why I chose it

Improve a draft

A student's first draft

We want to apologize for our last post. We didn't mean to offend anyone and we love having younger people at our events. It was a really stressful night and 1 things were hectic so we said something we shouldn't have. Honestly we were all tired and trying to get everything set up on time, and it's been a lot. We are sorry if anyone was hurt. 2 We promise it won't happen again and we hope everyone keeps coming! Thank you all for your support and understanding, it means a lot to us.

Your task

On your own Read the steps. Fill in the planner boxes before you start your draft.

Fix Gia's apology using a four-line template, then read it aloud as Anika would hear it.

Use: The caption, the event log and Gia's first draft.

You'll make: Four-sentence correction

Time: 45 minutes

- 1 Find the claim in Evidence A. What did it say caused the delay?
- 2 Check the log in Evidence B. Write what happened at 5:40 and at 6:20.
- 3 Choose one change the crew will make next time.
- 4 Write a four-sentence correction with the template in the Your draft box.
- 5 Read your correction aloud as Anika would hear it.
- 6 Cross out any sentence that is only about how sorry Gia feels.

Show it your way

Write it: Fill in the template:

"We said __. The record shows __. We changed __. Next time __ will __."

Say it: Read your correction aloud as Anika would hear it, then say which line she needed most and why.

Show it: Make a three-box comic strip: the caption, the log entry that challenges it and the fixed caption posted in the same place.

Does your correction name the wrong claim?	☐ Yes ☐ No

Did you leave out how sorry Gia feels?	☐ Yes ☐ No

How your work is scored

Mark one box in each row.

Skill	Beginning	Developing	Proficient	Advanced
Evidence	☐ No evidence about the delay.	☐ Mentions “technical issues” vaguely.	☐ Cites the projector failure from the log.	☐ Cites specific times and corrects who actually helped.
Reasoning	☐ Apologizes for feelings only.	☐ Admits error but not what it was.	☐ Names the inaccurate claim and replaces it.	☐ Explains why the claim harmed a group and how the repair prevents a repeat.
Audience & purpose	☐ Does not consider who saw the post.	☐ Speaks to readers in general.	☐ Reaches the people who were blamed.	☐ Reaches the original audience and the blamed group through appropriate channels.

Skill	Beginning	Developing	Proficient	Advanced
Revision	☐ No change.	☐ Softens tone only.	☐ Adds facts and a repair.	☐ Adds facts, an owner, a check and removes shifting of blame.
