

Name the kind of rule

Use this when you hear “it’s the rule” and want to know who made it.

- 1 Law
Passed by Congress, a state legislature or a city council.
- 2 Regulation
Written by a government agency to carry out a law.
- 3 Policy
A school’s, employer’s or platform’s own rule.
- 4 Professional code
A standard a profession sets for its members. Some are voluntary, like the codes for journalists. The rules for lawyers are adopted in each state and can lead to discipline.

Example from Case 11

- 1 Real law: The Equal Pay Act (1963) requires equal pay for men and women doing substantially equal work.
- 2 No regulation appears in the evidence.
- 3 The company sets rates. The evidence shows no policy.
- 4 Real code: SHRM’s HR code calls for policies that foster “fair, consistent and equitable treatment for all.”

⚠ Watch out: “Illegal” is a claim about a law. Read the law before you say it.
